Hello and welcome...

As KW Group celebrates 10 years in business, we're looking forward to what the year ahead has to offer.

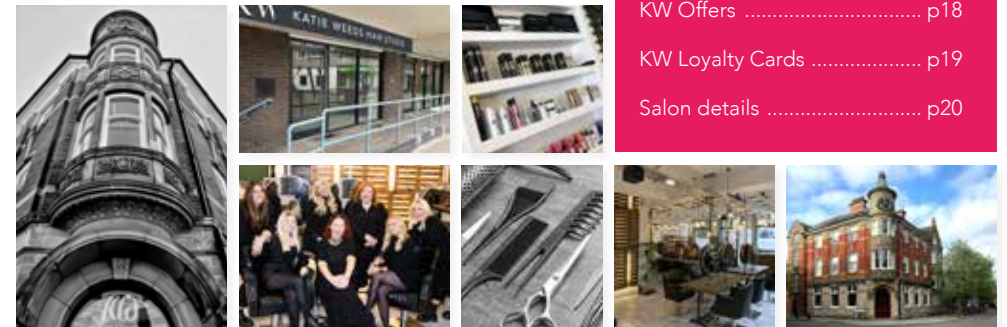

We have recently taken on 10 new stylists across our five salons, and, of course, they're all lovely, creative and very talented. We know it's not always easy to book an appointment with us, so we've improved availability by offering more stylists, and Allestree and Belper will also be opening on Mondays.

The KW Extensions Team are very busy at the moment and they are loving what they do. It's the ultimate makeover moment introducing a client to lovely long locks. If you're considering extensions for length, thickness or both, book in for a free consultation.

Look out for our new website where you can easily see availability and book with the Booksy App.

love, Katie & the Team

PS A big thank you to local legend, Dickon Clark, for supplying our fab photography again. For weddings, commercial, portraits & more - www.dickonclark.co.uk

Beauty Works - working for you

Extensions have been around long enough that we all know how they can give long, luscious locks. You might be surprised to know, however, that many of our customers, who enjoy our extension service, are not necessarily looking for longer hair. Many of our clients simply want a thicker more youthful style, which provides confidence in an instant!

Book for a free consultation to find out more.

I'm thinking about having extensions, what do I do?

Your journey begins with a free KW consultation to discuss what you wish to achieve and what method, product and tones will work best for you. We spend time discussing your needs and the look you wish to achieve. We are always honest, and will discuss what we think will work best for you. We provide a full no-obligation quotation for the amount of hair needed and the time it will take to apply them for you in salon. We don't expect you to make any decision there and then - we understand this is an investment and deserves some thought.

Which brand of extensions do you work with at KW?

After much research, we opted for Beauty Works. They source hair ethically and are known for supplying a high quality product. With over fifty shades to choose from at differing lengths and weights - they were the obvious choice and we haven't been disappointed.

Which type of extensions would be best for me?

Together we will opt for the best extensions to benefit you and your daily routines and how you generally wear your hair.

TAPES OR TAPE-IN

The tapes adhere to your hair with a strip of gentle adhesive. They lay flat to the head, but may be noticeable when hair is worn up.

MICRO-RINGS

A small bead is threaded onto the hair and crimped in place. Micro-rings have a larger number of strands for thicker hair types.

NANO-RINGS

As the name suggests, the Nano bead is smaller than the Micro, as is the amount of hair in each extension. Ideal for finer hair.

colours: Silver,
Ivory, Molly-Mae
and Ice Blonde

What colour extensions should I choose?

As part of your consultation, we look at tones that will compliment your natural skin and hair colour. If you are thinking about a complete colour change, we can discuss a colour service too. In such a case, we will colour, highlight or balayage your own hair first and then add in the extensions to further enhance your fabulous new look.

How do I get the best from my extensions?

With the right care, your extensions should last for around a year, so our final step is to advise on how to care for your extensions and when to book in for maintenance to reapply your tapes or reposition your rings. We suggest coming back to us every 4-12 weeks, but this will depend entirely on how quickly your hair grows. It really is that easy, to achieve the hair you've always dreamed of!

Will my extensions hurt my scalp or damage my hair?

When your extensions are first fitted, most clients are aware of them. There is a very slight feeling similar to wearing a ponytail. After 48 hours, this feeling is all but gone and your extensions will not be noticeable, however, you cannot run your fingers through your hair in a way that you may have done previously. Tapes and rings do not damage the hair, if you follow the correct aftercare advice and always use a qualified extensions expert to fit, maintain and remove the hair.

I'd like to go ahead with extensions - what next?

As we order your hair, we will book you in for your fitting. We ask for a deposit at this point and the balance is paid on your fitting day. For fitting, you need to arrive with dry, clean hair with no styling products applied. To complete the service, we will style your fabulous new locks and provide you with the info you need to maintain your extensions at home and suggest hair care products.

Beauty Works - KW Clients ...

Many of us have an impression of hair extensions only being for young, model-types, famous for reality TV. However, after more than 6 years of fitting in salon, we know that they benefit all of our clients. We talked to just four of our extensions customers, who love the work we do and the difference extensions have made to their confidence in everyday life.

Book in for a consultation to find out how extensions could work for you.

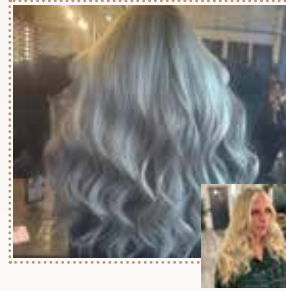

Influencer and model Charlotte Alanya visiting the salon for Beauty Works extensions fitted by Katie

"My hair was badly damaged at a local salon, which meant I wasn't able to have highlights until my hair improved. I really wanted to go lighter, so Katie suggested that I should have lighter extensions added to my own hair. I was amazed at the transformation. I felt like I'd gone from grim to a goddess in just a few hours. I literally left the salon swishing my hair and I'm still doing it now!"

Kiera - Belfer salon

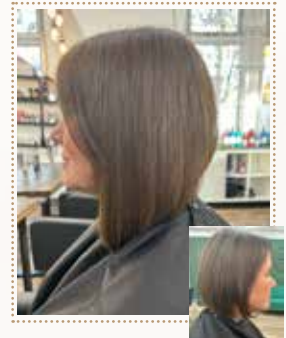

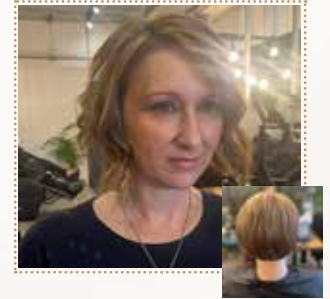

"I have always loved the look of really long, full hair. Big hair and glamour is exactly my style. I was an early adopter and have been wearing extensions for a decade. Beauty Works is definitely the best brand for hair that I've found and I absolutely recommended it to Katie for the salons. When I get new hair, I always opt for the full 20 inch dramatic look. I feel totally naked without them now."

Lucy - Belfer salon

"I've never been able to grow my hair long and I spoke to my stylist about it. She suggested extensions. I wasn't convinced, but then when she showed me hers - and that so many of the stylists had them too - I was amazed at how natural they all looked. I had a consultation there and then. I will say the hair and fitting isn't cheap, but the team are trained professionals and the extensions are excellent quality. The hair has lasted me well over a year, and it still looks amazing."

Julie - Allestree salon

"Kim had pestered me to try extensions, but I felt they were probably difficult to maintain and more trouble than they were worth. I finally relented and what a difference they have made. The BW hair blends in naturally with my own shoulder-length bob, making it appear thicker and more youthful."

The one thing I hadn't anticipated, however, was not having to wash and blow dry my hair every day, which has been necessary all my life. So, rather than being difficult to manage, it's entirely the opposite, plus my own hair is healthier as it's not being damaged by styling! Turns out, Kim knows her stuff... but don't tell her that!"

10 TOP TIPS FOR... Extensions

- 1. Treat your extensions as your own hair
Extensions are 100% natural human hair. As always, use professional products to protect hair from heat, styling and the climate.
- 2. Regular salon maintenance is your friend
As your hair grows your extensions will move away from the scalp. At 4-12 weeks, have them removed and placed back at your roots.
- 3. Allow tape extensions to settle for 2 days
Tapes use an adhesive strip which holds your extensions in place, don't wash your hair for 48 hours to ensure they have bonded.
- 4. Consider extensions for thickness
If you find your hair is wispy, thinning, likely to break and doesn't grow well, then extensions give an instant healthy, fuller look.
- 5. Use a Head Jog or boar bristle brush
These brushes detangle effortlessly, and float over your rings or tapes without snagging.
- 6. Don't got to bed with wet extensions
To avoid any matting or knotting we recommend not sleeping with wet hair.
- 7. Take care when brushing
Support your extensions at the root, as too much tension can pull out the extensions.
- 8. Take advantage of the BW product deal
We've come up with the perfect extensions product combo, which when bought together for £40, has a £6 saving:
Beauty Works Sulphate Free Shampoo
Beauty Works Sulphate Free Conditioner
Beauty Works 10-in-1 Miracle Spray
Head Jog Brush
- 9. Invest in professional products
Check out all of Katie's favourite products opposite, but talk to us for more advice.
- 10. Avoid suncream on your extensions
Be careful on holiday when applying suncream, as the ingredients can cause your extensions to change colour!

1. BEAUTY WORKS 10-IN-1 MIRACLE SPRAY
Does everything you need in terms of styling and protecting your extensions

2. L'OREAL VITAMINO SHAMPOO

7. BEAUTY WORKS DREAM SHINE
A protective formula that repels moisture to eliminate frizz and flyaways, leaving hair smooth and salon fresh.

6. GHD PICK ME UP
A lovely lightweight mousse that works with heated styling tools for fuller body and va-va-voom

8. BEAUTY WORKS ANTI YELLOW SHAMPOO
A product that colour corrects and neutralises yellow discolouration and banishes brass, restoring cooler tones to blonde hair extensions

9. L'OREAL ABSOLUT REPAIR OIL
A leave-in oil that deeply hydrates dry, damaged hair, reducing the look of split ends and tangles.

10. OLAPLEX N°4C
Enhances hair by removing the build up from styling products, shampoos and conditioners

BEAUTY

KW RIPLEY

Back in 2023, a few months after we had opened our Mickleover salon, we began to get itchy feet once more. The old NatWest bank in Ripley had been empty for many years and although a beautiful old building, it had remained vacant since 2018.

Group CEO, (and Katie's Dad) Chris Weeds, couldn't help himself and contacted the agents and arranged for Katie to go along to the viewing. Fully expecting to hate the building, they both fell in love with the blank canvas in front of them. Yet again, a bank had stolen their hearts.

The whole ground floor was just a shell, but Katie could see exactly what she wanted to do with it. Over just a few weeks the team decorated, scrubbed, designed layouts and began recruitment. Teams of electricians from LECAW Electrical and other local trades all worked seamlessly together to make the dream become a reality.

Company Director, Katie explains, "We discovered quite quickly that some of the original features were still there. Hidden under grotty old carpet tiles was beautiful flooring. Wherever possible we managed to reveal mosaics and some stunning Edwardian tiling."

She laughs, "It was when lifting these ugly carpet tiles, and scraping off old glue from the mosaics in the vault, that we found treasure. You can still see the massive Chubb door in place which gives an indication of how many hundreds of thousands of pounds were originally stored there. As one of the team lifted a carpet tile, she found a measly two pence. We decided it wasn't enough to retire on, so we carried on scrubbing."

Katie goes on, "I love all of the salons, but there's something really special about taking an old building with all of its many quirks, and bringing it back to life. Like Belper, the high ceilings and large open spaces really give Ripley that wow-factor. I adore the stylish, deep green beauty room with its hanging foliage - all our clients comment on it. We are also proud of how we transformed the old vault into our drinks area... metal bars and all!"

That same vault will soon see KW Ripley introducing a premises licence, to serve alcohol as we do at the other salons. So, if you like a little glass of prosecco while your highlights are developing, look no further.

Jess senior beauty therapist, loves the vibe at Ripley too,

"The beauty rooms at Belper are great, but there's so much space here at Ripley. From what we can gather, my room used to be the bank manager's office where he would meet with anyone wanting a mortgage or a loan. I'm afraid I don't offer any financial services, but my massages and facials will definitely top-up your well-being balance and that's worth so much more."

The history of the town attracted us too. As part of the Cromford Canal network, Ripley became industrialised as early as the 1790's, which changed the small village into a noisy, bustling town that we see today.

In 1903, due to the rising importance of its location, the construction of a tramway began from Nottingham to Ripley. Known as the "Ripley Rattlers", it had the ominous reputation as the most dangerous stretch of tramway in Britain. The route was single track with awkward passing points all the way into Nottingham. The terminus was situated just outside our front doors on Nottingham Road - see picture with the corner of our building on the left.

Historically speaking, we have apparently enjoyed a range of attractions in Ripley over the years, including two large variety halls, which later became huge 600-seat cinemas. Even more surprisingly, Oxford Street also had its own fully-fledged zoo with a fine array of exotic animals such as kangaroos, lemurs and a bear called Little Roosevelt. The tourist landmark closed in 1915 due to lack of food during the First World War.

Newly appointed Director, Amy T, has recently taken on KW Ripley covering Danielle on Maternity Leave, she explains, "I'm usually located in Allestree and although Ripley has a very different vibe, the one constant is just how lovely our customers are. Everyone I've met so far has been incredibly friendly and I can't wait to welcome everyone into this beautiful salon!"

As Amy T settles in, one thing is for sure, KW Group will be an important part of Ripley's future, for both its residents and the wider community.

If you would like to book an appointment with us, please call us on 01773 462873 or book with the Booksy app.

Bridal

For 10 years, we have been creating beautiful looks for brides of all ages. We genuinely feel privileged to be a part of our client's wedding plans. Deciding on your look can be a tricky one, but at KW we think of it as a collaboration.

Bring along your mood boards, your ideas and let's work together to create your look. We are taking bookings for wedding parties for this year and next, so call your local salon for a chat. Let's make this happen...

What happens next?

- Reserve your day with us in salon
- Fill out a KW Bridal Consultation Form
- Choose an in-salon or on-location service
- Book your trial session in one of our salons
- Bring along your mood boards and ideas
- Let's chat and get creative together
- Enjoy a glass of Prosecco on us
- On your Big Day, our team will have plenty of time to work on you and Team Bride
- Finally, have the best day of your life!

For your happily ever after...
